

ANNOUNCING

THE "RHYTHM OF LIFE" GRAND TRIP 2020

Come join your sisters and brothers, family and friends on an exciting adventure to our Nation's Capitol.

Visit some of the sites where history was made and remember the sacrifice of those who throughout our history fought to preserve and protect our God given freedoms.

Our visit to the Capitol City includes the National Mall, National Archives, some of the greatest museums in the world, enjoy the Botanic Gardens at one of the most beautiful times of the year, visit Arlington National Cemetery and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Gettysburg National Park where President Lincoln gave the most famous speech in our history, visit the home of our first president George Washington (Mt. Vernon), and enjoy a special excursion to the Eastern Star International Temple (Belmont House) and the Scottish Rite House of the Temple. Dine at some of the top spots in DC, dinner at Carmine's, lunch at the Gadsby's Tavern in Alexandria and see the sights and monuments of our Capitol City on the DC Odyssey Dinner Cruise complete with a live orchestra as we cruise the Potomac and so much more and return home with great memories.

Don't miss this opportunity to discover the sights and sounds of our Nation's Capitol and experience the wonders of world class museums and monuments as well as sharing unforgettable moments with your sisters and brothers.

Space is limited to the first 55 at the price shown.
