

" MEMBERS ON SIDE LINES "

I have no voice for singing
I cannot make a speech
have no gift for music,
I know I cannot teach.

I am no good at leading
I cannot Organize
And anything I write
Would never win a prize

But at the roll call in the meetings
I always answer "Here"
When others are performing
I lend a listening ear.

After the program's over,
I praise its every part,
My words are not to flatter
I mean them from my heart.

It seems my only talent
Is neither big nor rare--
Just to listen and encourage
And to fill a vacant chair.

But all the gifted people
Could not so brightly shine
Were it not for those who use
A talent such as mine.

THE STAR

By Rob Morris

Where the bright acacia waving
Tells of life forever green,
Lo, yon starry-pointed graying
The emblem of Faith is seen.

Star that gleamed in heavenly story
Oh, whisper tender hope in every ray,
Shine with the light of perfect glory,
And lead to eternal day.

Lo, that star that went before them,
Stood above the gentle guest,
Oh, for the mighty faith that bore them
So far in the holy quest.

Guide us up the mountains,
Where true Adah smiled at death;
Lead us down beside the fountains,
By the scene of Ruth's great faith.

Land of Persia's queen immortal,
Star of matchless wonder show;
Thence with Martha to the portal,
As a guide to our glad feet go.

Where the rose of Sharon bloometh,
By the martyr's grave afar,
There in mighty glory cometh
So gently the Eastern Star.
